

WHEN MIRACLE IS ALL THAT IS LEFT

WHEN MIRACLE IS ALL THAT IS LEFT.

To my surprise, I have discovered that Christian folk are often hesitant to pray for a miracle. Well, if believers won't pray for a miracle, who will?

I wonder if it is because praying for a miracle is seen as the LAST RESORT – and if the miracle doesn't happen – then what might that say about our faith? Or God?

But you need a miracle. You are desperate. Everything humanly possible has been tried. God is the only one left. If so, PRAY FOR A MIRACLE.

Four things to keep in mind.

First, NOTHING is impossible with God.

Second, remember you are asking for MERCY. God owes you nothing – but he delights to show mercy.

Third, fully admit any part you played in the present disaster. Literally, get down on your knees and confess EVERYTHING.

Fourth, ask for a MIRACLE! Not just strength or wisdom to get through it. If you want a miracle – ASK for one. Don't wallow in your unworthiness. Of course you are unworthy. That is NOT the point.

THE POINT IS YOU HAVE COME TO THE GOD WHO CREATED THE UNIVERSE!

THIS GOD LOVES YOU AND HAS RECONCILED YOU TO HIMSELF THROUGH JESUS CHRIST!

THIS GOD IS GOOD AND LOVES TO HAVE MERCY!

So get down on your knees and ask for a miracle.

Then surrender it to God and TRUST HIM.

